

Application deadline: Mon, Feb. 10, 2025

- Open to all candidates regardless of citizenship status
- Must propose research in colorectal cancer prevention
- We encourage applicants with backgrounds in basic biomedical sciences, biostatistics, bioinformatics, epidemiology, behavioral sciences, social sciences, and other research disciplines related to population and public health
- Rigorous education in cancer prevention and control and professional development in key career navigation skills
- Up to 2 years salary support
- Research support and other expenses provided by mentors
- Candidates must have earned/will earn their doctorate within 5 months of the application deadline

For details and application instructions visit:

bit.ly/GordonPostdoc